Corporation By-Laws Revised and Adopted

The revised by-laws comprising twenty-one articles and numerous sections for Norway Village Corporation were adopted at the adjourned corporation meeting held in Norway Hall, Tuesday evening, with Stuart W. Goodwin as moderator. At the annual meeting in March, 1927, a committee, George F. Hathaway, Donald B. Partridge and Fred S. Brown, was appointed to revise the code. A report was submitted at the last annual meeting and owing to the importance of numerous changes, further action was deferred until April 3.

The articles and sections were read separately by the clerk, Donald B. Partridge, with ample time for discussion and consideration by the fifty male voters present.

Sections in the fire department article and portions of the new building regulations were stumbling blocks that produced amendments and rejections.

Under an amendment suggested by George L. Sanborn and adopted, the fire companies shall comprise fifteen able-bodied men between the ages of 18 and 50 years. The amendment stated definitely, the number of men for a full company.

A section calling for non-combustible walls in buildings higher than one story which may be erected on Main Street between Bridge and Danforth Streets was stricken out. Using non-combustible roof covering on all new buildings within the Corporation, including replacements on old structures or repairs more than 25 per cent., after a fire, caused discussion and a close vote on passing over the article. This section was adopted with the meeting nearly evenly divided.

The new code will not become effective until approved by a justice of the supreme court or the county commissioners.

He is connected with the Federal Government Ranger in Wild Lands. He gave us a good map of the White Mountain National Forest.

Solution to Last Week's Puzzle

OXFORD—FORE STREET

Mrs. Chestina Twitchell has been with her daughter, Melissa Giles, of Skowhegan these last three weeks, for an indefinite stay.

Ai Twitchell and family, E. E. Twitchell and Miss Chestina Twitchell attended conference at Mechanic Falls, the 30th, also Herman Thurlow. Ai and family went again, Saturday.

Iva Allen Watson and husband, who now are employed in Auburn shoe shop, spent the week end at her home here with her mother, Mrs. Mary Allen.

Flora Cummings, who has been at Norway with Mrs. Wm. Pierce for three weeks or more, returned to her home, Monday, the 26th. Saturday, the 31st, she left for South Paris to play the April Fool for friends of her's on Pine Street.

Several ladies of Oxford Fore Street met with Mrs. Mildred Twitchell, the 29th. Miss Chestina Twitchell extended an invitation for their next meet to be with her. An invitation to all the ladies on Oxford Fore Street is included.

My! but the whiz of auto traffic does the heart good, as it sets the blood to tingling in one's veins, as well as the song of spring birds and bursting bud, after the quiet of winter. The Twitchells have tapped trees, but as yet it has not proved satisfactory sap weather.

Now we are watching to see a smoke curl from chimneys of the summer homes this way and hope to welcome the comers soon.

Lettuce, green peas and new potatoes will soon be set for the making, already boxes for tomato plants are in the sunny windows, getting ready while Alvin Lovejoy, our standby hot house gardener, has these several weeks been on the job at his green-house. "Fills a feller full of courage," this promising outlook, doesn't it?

EAST BUCKFIELD

The roads were quite muddy before this cold snap.

Some of the farmers have been taking advantage of what little snow there is in the fields to haul up a summer wood pile.

Spring birds have arrivd, robin bluebird, crow, blackbird, fox sparrow, ground sparrow, blue jay, partridge, wheat bird, hawk, and the chickadee is still singing his merry note.

March 22 was the best sap day.

Mrs. Helen Small and daughter of Mechanic Falls are in town.

NORTHWEST NORWAY

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Barrows of South Paris, with a number of friends and relatives, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Freeland E. Adams, Saturday evening, in honor of the fifth anniversary of their marriage. Some of them remained over Sunday, it being Mr. Adams' birthday; dainty refreshments were served and a very pleasant time enjoyed.

Says N. Y. Man. A Healthful Bladder Does Not Act at Night

Mr. J. A. Davis, E. Setauket, N. Y., says in his own home paper, the Riverhead Review: "Keller's Lithiated Buchu has corrected my bladder and I do not have to get up at night. You may use my name and I will be glad to tell or write my experience."

Lithiated Buchu cleanses the bladder as epsom salts do the bowels. It isn't a patent medicine as the formula is on the label. The tablets cost 2c each at leading drug stores. Keller Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, Ohio. Locally at L. V. Ashton's druggist.

WATERFORD

The news that John Grover had lost his life by being caught in an ice jam at Gorham, N. H., was a great shock to the people in this vicinity. Mr. Grover has lived in Waterford nearly all his life and was well known to everyone. Much sympathy is felt for his wife and daughter.

Mrs. Eliot Bishop and two children, of Brooklyn, spent the week end in town the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Morgan. Mrs. Bishop called on old friends around town, also spent some time at their beautiful little cottage, where she made plans for a lot of work of redecorating, insisting an extra chamber, etc. Warren and Mary Bishop enjoyed the sliding, even walking, sap gathering and other sports that the country offers in early spring. On Sunday afternoon, Warren Bishop and Charles Fillebrown visited Fred Wentworth and took snapshots of his fine flock of spring lambs. The Bishop family seem to find Waterford a very pleasant place at all seasons of the year.

Miss Louise Stone is spending the Easter vacation with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Stone. Louise is a student at Farmington Normal School.

Sunday evening, Dr. and Mrs. Hubbard entertained Mrs. Eliot Bishop and Warren and Mary, at supper.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Fillebrown entertained a jolly party at supper, on Saturday evening. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Brown of North Waterford, Dr. and Mrs. Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Morse.

Mrs. F. A. Morgan recently entertained Mrs. W. W. Fillebrown, Mrs. L. R. Rounds and Mrs. R. E. Hubbard. Bridge whist was the order of exercises for the evening.

School began on Monday, after three weeks of vacation.

Carl Heath and family have moved to the Bert Learned place.

Bert Heath is at his home for a while.

Mrs. Dora Rounds, Mrs. Charlotte Fillebrown and Mrs. Blanche Tyler gave Mrs. Nellie Stone a surprise on Monday evening. The ladies brought their fancy work and spent a pleasant evening; the only draw-back to the pleasure being the fact that there was nothing to eat, which is very unusual at a gathering in Waterford.

NORTH WATFRFORD

Winfield Brown moved the camp below Ed Farmer's, up near the Mineral Springs near the Four Corners, with his track, Monday.

Ernest Grover was at Gorham a few days last week, as his brother, John Grover, was drowned there and as yet his body has not been found.

Schools that had been closed here two weeks, opened Monday.

Joe Theriault and family who lived in Riley McKeen's house, have moved into Ezra Lebroke's place in Albany, where the barn was burned by lightning.

Aunt Hattie Rice is here stopping at her son's, Burnham Rice's.

Mrs. Ed Austin and children stopped, Sunday night, at her parents', in North Norway.

There is to be an Easter play at the Church, Sunday evening.

Mothers, Do This—

When the children cough, rub Musterole on their throats and chests. No telling how soon the symptoms may develop into croup, or worse. And then's when you're glad you have a jar of Musterole at hand to give prompt relief.

As first aid, Musterole is excellent. Keep a jar ready for instant use.

It is the remedy for adults, too. Relieves sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, chilblains, frosted feet and colds of the chest (it may prevent pneumonia).

To Mothers: Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole.

Sickly Boy, 7, Gains 15 Lbs. —Father Happy

"My boy, 7, would not eat. I gave him Vinol and the way he eats and plays now makes me happy. He gained 15 pounds."—J. F. Andres.

Vinol is a delicious compound of cod liver peptone, iron, etc. The very FIRST bottle often adds several pounds weight to thin children or adults. Nervous, easily tired, anemic people are surprised how Vinol gives new pep, sound sleep and a BIG appetite. Tastes delicious. L. V. Ashton, Druggist.

Good Judgement Says "Make Your Will"

Do you know exactly who will get your property if you do not leave a will? Different states have different laws in this respect—do you know the laws in our State?

You owe it to yourself to have the facts and we will give them to you gladly, without cost.

Speaking of costs: The legal fees for an executor under a will are the same whether you appoint your friend or wife who may not have experience, or whether you name us, with our long experience in knowing exactly what to do and how to do it legally, safely, promptly.

Why not consider this as a business matter which calls for a decision. Let us help you.

CENTER LOVELL

Jolly-Ate Club

The spring series of weekly meetings of the "Jolly-Ate" Bridge Club of Centre Lovell speeds apace. The third of this series was held at the delightful old Colonial home of Mrs. Ruth Stanford at Number Four of Thursday, March 29th.

Through some error of omission the wather for the first time during the meeting of these parties was delightfully bright and sunny and probably had its part in adding to the general gaiety and pleasure of the afternoon.

As usual the club was fully represented, with two tables of bridge in play. Mrs. Olive Barker was able to run up high score of the afternoon. Her efforts were well rewarded by an attractive and useful prize.

Following the precedent set last week of serving a real supper instead of the customary luncheon Mrs. Stanford surpassed her former very excellent efforts. The piece-de-resistance was a very tempting and appetizing chicken pie. An added feature contributing to the afternoon's gaiety was the graceful exhibition of the "Dance of the Kangaroos" by entertainers especially provided for the occasion.

In last weeks report it was noted that the members of the club might have a two-day affair of their parties. The members now realize that it was ill-advised to make this comment at that itme and your reporter apologizes. Such a howl of anguish and resentment went up from the already distressed husbands who have been sped away at noon with a hasty snack and urged to make a full dinner on crackers and milk if their mates did not return in time to prepare the evening meal, that we feel the husbands might band together and raid our kitchens on club days. This part of the club's programme has therefore been cancelled.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Olive Barker at Number Four on the first Thursday of the month.

KEZAR FALLS

Rev. Arthur Callaghan preached a very interesting sermon, Palm Sunday, from the text "Thy King Cometh." In addition to the usual singing, Mrs. Chauncey Cutting sang a solo, "The Palms" very beautifully.

During the Easter holiday, the following students from Bates College will be with us: Carolyn Stanley, Lillian Giles, Mildred Mitchell, Annette Callaghan and Muriel Doe, from Bowdoin, Malcolm Stanley, while the State University presents us with Herbert Elliott and Emery Ridlon. Charming young people all and welcome to our native heath.

Irma Giles and Esther Doe had the pleasure of spending last week at Bates College as the guests of their respective sisters.

Margaret L. Chellis returned to her school at Durham, N. H., the first of the week.

John W. Garner was in Portland a few days last week, the guest of his uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Devereux.

William Riley, who has been at the Maine General Hospital for several weeks, returned home last Saturday.

Mrs. W. T. Norton, O. L. Stanley and Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Granville have returned from Bangor.

The "Beantown Choir," a play of three acts, was given on the evening of March 27th, in K. of P. Hall, under the auspices of the Daisy Class of the M. E. Church. In point of fact, the members of the cast were nearly all Daisies and those who lent themselves to aid the cause in close affinity. Speaking advisedly, without partiality to home talent, it was a good, wholesome play, each individual part well taken and real genius shown, costumes and the characterization which went with each one was perfect; the time antedated the Civil War and old fashioned songs so dear to memory, "Annie Laurie" was there in person, the "Last Rose of Summer" also. The "Quilting Party" who "Was Seeing Nellie Home," "Old Black Joe," the Designing Widow, the minister, the Ladies' Aid, the mischievous boy, the quarrel in the choir, Jeddediah and his wonderful chorus, which brought down the house. Thanks are due a busy business man for the patience, perseverence and ability which for fifteen years or more he has bestowed upon the young people of this place, coaching them in their dramatic enterprises.

Mrs. James Chapman has been confined to the house for two weeks by illness.

The supper served by the Carol West Post in the vestry of the M. E. Church last week was a pecuniary success.

The proceeds of the motion picture, "Swim, Girls, Swim," shown under the auspices of the Porter High Alumni in Stanley's Theatre, was kindly presented to the Association by him to advance the interests of the Edgely Scholarship Fund.

Friday evening Ruth E. Garner entertained thirty members of the Alumni Association. After the collation, cards and dancing were in order.

Harrison Welcomes the "Squared Circle"

The Harrison Athletic Association, a newly formed group of sport fans, presented to the public on Monday, April 2, their first offering in the form of a boxing contest. Six bouts of four two minute rounds filled the card to full and overflowing with action. The boys were anxious to give their patrons the full value of the money paid, and they certainly "did their stuff" well.

The "curtain raiser" was between "Gunboat" Stuart and "Spider" Butterfield, both of Harrison, and although "Gunboat" forced the fighting throughout the bout, and perhaps had a margin by points, the bout was close and clean.

The second preliminary was also one of action with "Sliver" Wentworth facing "Battler" Butterfield. Both boys were of the local stable, which is conducted by Percy Stearns of this town. The third preliminary brought together "Shiner" Stearns and "Kid" Pulkkinen, the battling Finn. This bout also went the four rounds, but was even greater than the preceding ones in the amount of action. Both boys are local.

The fourth preliminary was one of special interest, bringing together "Cannonball" Brigham of Bridgton and "Dusty" De Lorme of Boston. This bout stepped over the line from a boxing contest to a slug-fest and action was heaped upon action until the hall rang with applause and words of encourgement to the fighters. The bout only lasted three fast rounds, at the end of which neither man was in condition to resume the aggressive. The attendants by mutual consent threw towels into the ring from both corners, declaring their charges unfit for further combat.

The semi-final between "Sidewivder" Little of South Harrison and "Mauler" Walker of Bridgton only lasted one round. The Bridgton lad proved too much for the local boy and scored a technical knockout.

The final bout of the evening, listed as the main bout, was between two local lads, "Risko" Anderson, who terms himself the "terrible Finn" and "Heeney" Chapman. The bout was fast and furious, with the Finn shading Chapman only to a small degree.

The contest was in charge of E. P. Stearns, Maynard Burnell and W. B. Spiller. Myron Briggs acted as timer, Burnell as referee, and Chet Curtis as announcer.

Plans for another contest in the near future are under way, and plenty of action may well be expected. All the boys are looking for return engagements and all the fans are hoping they will get them.

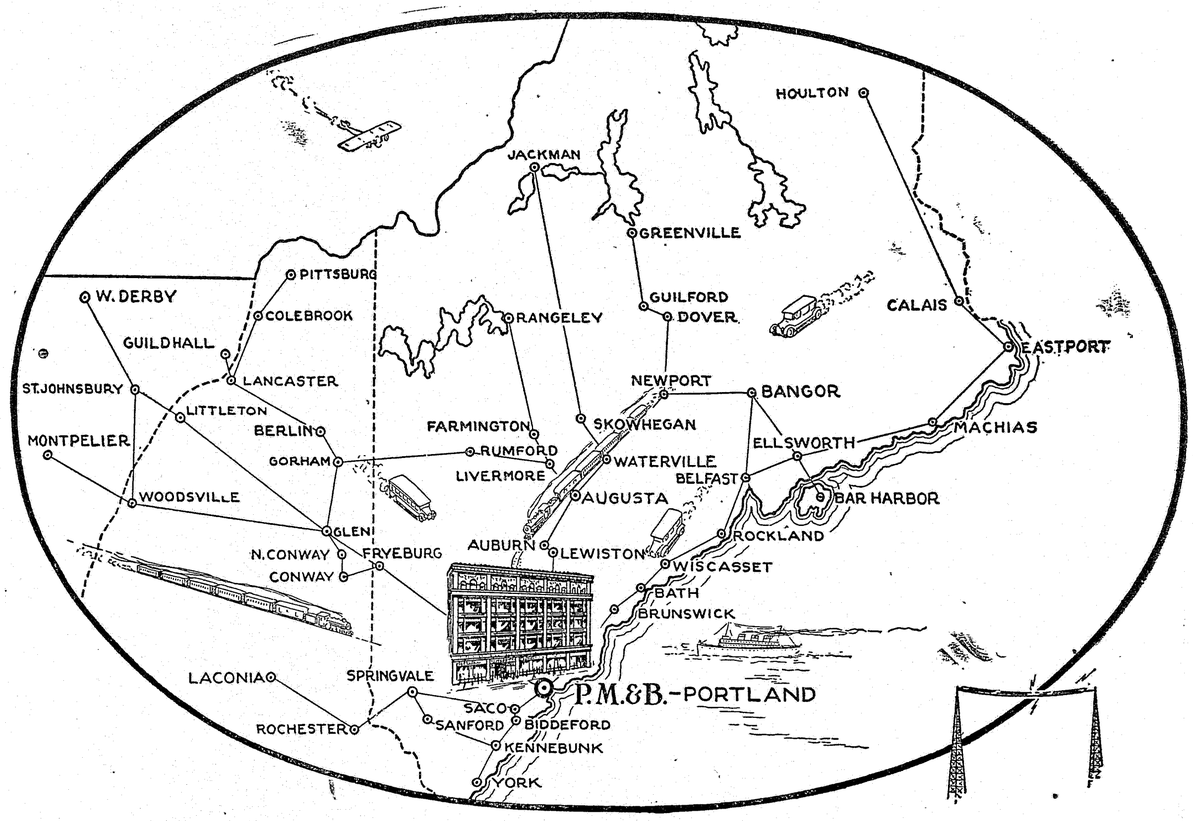
A STEP AHEAD IN STOREKEEPING — THE VISION OF TODAY



TODAY'S WAYS OF TRAVEL

~the telephone; the telegraph and the mail~

place this store and all its shopping advantages within your easy reach at all times

We feel that it is of sound advantage to every community that whenever possible its people trade at home. But if for any reason you are unable to do this and satisfy your requirements, you may easily avail yourself of the complete varieties and assortments always found in this store. For, nowadays, traveling has become more a matter of minutes than miles.

Day in and day out, we are constantly studying the wants and desires of our Northern New England people. While we give first preference to merchandise made in Maine—in New England—in America, we do search the markets of the whole world in order that we may place before our people not only what is new, but what affords the best in style, value and attractiveness.

No matter how often you visit the store, there is always something new to see—an ever changing panorama of style—always an opportunity for the selection of new things to add to the grace of self and charm of home.

Yet with all these manifold advantages, with the convenience in shopping and wide varieties our new store affords, you are also assured of the lowest possible prices at all times. For though we have made many changes for the improvement of our service, these two things remain unchanged—the regard we have for our old friends—and our price policy of 22 years standing—that:

Our prices are always as low and often lower than those quoted for equal quality elsewhere. That we are never knowingly undersold.

Whenever it's not convenient to come to the store yourself

—modern methods of communication still give you an opportunity to shop from our assortments; to take advantage of our values. Just drop us a line or call us on the phone and we will shop for you as conscientiously as you would for yourself; giving you the benefit of our intimate knowledge of what is best.

One More On Taxes: Who Should Pay Them

By R. L. Cummings

Editor Norway Advertiser, Norway, Me.: Some time ago I described a hard working man and his house where he and his wife and five children lived, from which a certain town official was in process of evicting them. The house was cold and poor, but this man hung to his home as many others would, even though it was poor. A previous action had been brought to take his children away from him. He was obliged to fight it at quite an expense. He won the case. I wonder if E. L. Dunham had anything to do with that case?

When I wrote the article I did not know Mr. Dunham or know that he was chairman of the board of Selectmen. Yet for my simple description of this case Mr. Dunham goes into print and calls me a "Liar" for which I have not yet asked him to settle. It seems he was hit. Felt guilty.

Now, Mr. Dunham, let us see about your truthfulness. In your article you represent that this man's taxes have been reduced. I think you have been requested to show the facts from your town books, but have not done so. From the examination of one man that I think must be as correct as you are able to show the facts, this is what is found: Taxes 1919, Lot No. 8, 120 acres, value $300.00. Total of all real estate $350.00. Lot No. 8, taxes 1920, valued $350.00, total taxed real estate $650.00. Lot No. 8, taxes 1921, valued $450.00, total taxed real estate $850.00. Added to this (said they had skipped or overlooked it $75) $925.00. 1923, total $1,250.00; 1924, $1,400.00; 1926, $1,950.00; 1927, $1,900.00. To discredit this man's good intentions to pay his taxes you say you agreed to take bridge plank of him. When, as you say, he asked if you would take them, you say you answered "Sure." Did we get them? "We did not." I learned that a certain man who has a reputation for truth and veracity, was present when that conversation took place. He has stated to me that he did not understand you to say that you would take any bridge plank of this man. With the statement of both of these men in opposition to your's, I am strongly inclined to think you lied a little in regard to this matter. Perhaps not, but it looks bad for your side of the story.

According to a signed statement from this man, the trouble began when you or your town refused, or neglected to open a road that he might deliver his timber at West Paris. He was obliged to spend time shoveling himself out, for which he says you gave him two orders of $25.00 each, $10.00 of which he had not earned, but as you let the roads be impassable so that his 20 cords of timber that was yarded on the pond sank, he did not repay it, and you made this out as pauper supplies.

Mr. Dunham, I have yet to learn that it is wise or humane to make a man appear as a town charge by book keeping.

You speak in a scandalizing way about an Automobile Graveyard near his house. I sold this man the remains of a Ford-Springfield form, a truck, and a Phoenix equipment that had never been used (but out of style) for $50.00, on time. He used the wheels for a trailer for his truck that he uses to deliver wood and timber. Also parts for his own repairs and sold the balance for $50.00. One car he bought for $2.50 and sold parts amounting to $4. Another he bought for $5.00 and sold the engine for $5.00. Two of these old cars that fill Mr. Dunham's eye, belong to other parties. There is nothing disgraceful or dishonest about buying and selling old cars or using the parts.

Just a word for the benefit of the party that speaks of me as "Brother Cummings" but fails to sign any name to the scandalous stuff he or she offers. In regard to the bedding that you say was given to him after his burn-out. He wishes me to say that your statement is wholly false, and that your statement in regard to the shoes given to one of his children is a misrepresentation as the child's own shoes were tapped and worn the next day by the child. I hope if this party goes into print again their real name will appear if they have such a thing that is printable. Report has it that this party is even more unfortunate than the man of whom I have spoken, and that she has for some time been a town charge. Be that as it may. Even that does not in reality disgrace the person. The disgrace depends upon the causes that brings one there.

Since this controversy began, one of this man's children had the misfortune to have a very badly broken leg, with an accompanying expensive trip to the hospital. I also recall that a year or two ago I loaned him a car free of charge for a similar trip. I believe a very large majority of the people about here would do the same for anyone that was in need. It would seem that Mr. Dunham and this other person without a name to sign to their articles feel differently. Yours truly,

—R. L. Cummings.

Now, Mr. Dunham, let us see about your truthfulness. In your article you say you state that this man's taxes have been reduced. I think you have been requested to show the facts from your town books, but have not done so. From the examination of one man that I think must be as correct as you are able to show the facts, this is what is found: Taxes 1919. Lot No. 8, 120 acres, value $400.00. Total of all real estate $550.00. Lot No. 8, taxes 1920, valued $350.00. Lot No. 8, taxes 1921, total real estate $650.00. Lot No. 8, taxes 1921, valued $450.00, total taxed real estate $650.00. Added to this (said may had skipped or overlooked it $75) $725.00. 1923, total $1,250.00; 1924, $1,-250.00; 1926, $1,950.00; 1927, $1,900.00. 400.00; 1928, $1,950.00; 1927, $1,900.00. To discredit this man's good intentions to pay his taxes you say you agreed to take the plank of him. When, as you say, he asked if you would take them, say you answered "Sure." Did we you get them? "We did not." I learned that a certain man who has a reputation for truth and veracity, was present when the conversation took place. He has stated to me that he did not understand you to say that you would take any bridge plank of this man. With the statement of both of these men in opposition to your's, I am strongly inclined to think you lied a little in regard to this matter. Perhaps not, but it looks bad for your side of the story.

According to a signed statement from this man, the trouble began when you or your town refused, or neglected to open a road that he might deliver his timber at West Paris. He was obliged to spend time shoveling himself out, for which he says you gave him two orders of $25.00 each, $10.00 of which he had not earned, but as you let the roads be impassable so that his 20 cords of timber that was yarded on the pond sank, he did not repay it, and you made this out as pauper supplies.

Mr. Dunham, I have yet to learn that it is wise or humane to make a man appear as a town charge by book keeping.

You speak in a scandalizing way about an Automobile Graveyard near his house. I sold this man the remains of a Ford-Springfield form, a truck, and a Phoenix equipment that had never been used (but out of style) for $50.00, on time. He used the wheels for a trailer for his truck that he uses to deliver wood and timber. Also parts for his own repairs and sold the balance for $50.00. One car he bought for $2.50 and sold parts amounting to $4. Another he bought for $5.00 and sold the engine for $5.00. Two of these old cars that fill Mr. Dunham's eye, belong to other parties. There is nothing disgraceful or dishonest about buying and selling old cars or using the parts.

Just a word for the benefit of the party that speaks of me as "Brother Cummings" but fails to sign any name to the scandalous stuff he or she offers. In regard to the bedding that you say was given to him after his burn-out. He wishes me to say that your statement is wholly false, and that your statement in regard to the shoes given to one of his children is a misrepresentation as the child's own shoes were tapped and worn the next day by the child. I hope if this party goes into print again their real name will appear if they have such a thing that is printable. Report has it that this party is even more unfortunate than the man of whom I have spoken, and that she has for some time been a town charge. Be that as it may. Even that does not in reality disgrace the person. The disgrace depends upon the causes that brings one there.

Since this controversy began, one of this man's children had the misfortune to have a very badly broken leg, with an accompanying expensive trip to the hospital. I also recall that a year or two ago I loaned him a car free of charge for a similar trip. I believe a very large majority of the people about here would do the same for anyone that was in need. It would seem that Mr. Dunham and this other person without a name to sign to their articles feel differently. Yours truly,

—R. L. Cummings.

WATERFORD

William W. Kilbourne Dies at Age of 91

The death of William W. Kilbourne occurred at home in Chelmsford, Mass. on Monday morning, March 26 at the advanced age of 91 years. Mr. Kilbourne had been most active for one of his age until this winter, when he gradually failed in strength, especially during the past three weeks. He was, however, up and about the house up to last Friday, so that the news of his death will come as a surprise to a wide circle of friends. He was a native of Waterford, Me., where he was engaged in farming and lumber interests up to 1891, when with his family he moved to Massachusetts. A gentleman of the old school, he was always courteous, kindly, neighborly, interested in the good things of the town and always ready to help in any way that he could. As deacon of the Central Congregational church for many years, he had the interests of the parish close at heart, and when he felt that he must retire from the active part in the service, he was elected "deacon emeritus." His constant attendance at the church services, his willingness to help wherever he could in a quiet, simple way, was an inspiration and example that will be missed.

He was one of the few remaining members of the Chelmsford Veterans Association, enlisting in the Civil war as a member of the First Maine Heavy Artillery, Company L.

He is survived by two daughters, Miss Katherine Kilbourne and Miss Lillian Kilbourne; a sister, Miss Emma Kilbourne, all of Chelmsford, and a fosterson, Howard Russell of Portland.

The funeral took place from his home, Littleton Road, Chelmsford Centre, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. John G. Lovell, pastor of the Central Congregational church. The floral offerings were numerous. The bearers were Curtis A. Aiken, Richard T. Boyd, Frank A. P. Coburn, Harry W. Saunders, William H. Chadbourne and Frederic P. Saunders. Burial was in the family lot in Forefathers Cemetery at Chelmsford.

IS YOUR CRANKCASE READY FOR SPRING?

Socony dealers will save the motorists of New York and New England many thousand dollars this week by asking courteously, "Is your crankcase ready for spring?"

CARS are ruined every spring because owners merely add a little clean oil to the dirty, diluted oil that has been in the crankcase all winter.

Winter driving demands repeated use of the choke. Raw gasoline seeps down and dilutes the crankcase oil—and diluted oil is almost as bad as no oil at all.

Every automobile engine accumulates dirt, and some of it eventually gathers in the bottom of the crankcase as sediment. Dirty oil ceases to be a good lubricant and tends to become a grinding compound. And grinding compounds are worse than no oil at all.

Tell the Socony man to get your crankcase ready for spring. He will drain your crankcase and flush it with Socony Flushing Oil. This cuts out all the sediment and leaves in place everywhere a thin protecting film of lubricant. Then he will fill up with Socony Motor Oil.

You pay only for the small cost of the oil. There is no charge for the service.

Socony Gasoline and Motor Oil must pass 13 rigid tests before they reach your car.

Mrs. Ada M. Smith a Suicide—Temporary Bridge Held Out—Convention Delegates.

The friends of Mrs. Ada M. Smith were much shocked on Monday morning to learn of the suicide of Mrs. Smith. The remains were discovered by Arthur Jackson, who had made his home with her before and since her husband's death, about five years ago. Dr. W. B. Twaddle was called, but as it was plainly a case of suicide from an overdose of chloroform, the medical examiner was not called. Her death is much regretted as she was a kind-hearted woman. Mrs. Smith was born in Montville, May 14, 1862, the daughter of George and Orvilla Gilchrist. About forty years ago she was married to Gerald Smith of this place and they always lived in Mayville. "Kolo" Dusting Materials give more permanent protection from each application

The New Dusts you can see Stick

These "Kolo" Dusting Materials have sticking properties not found in any other dusting material. They may be applied with equal effect to either wet or dry foliage, and after once "set," will stick for weeks throughout rain and wind. This dust is a visible sticker. You can see it plainly without lens or microscope. Experiments demonstrate that this sticker dust retains a larger percentage of sulphur on the leaf surface for a longer period than is the case of "Lime Sulphur" Solution, or most any other liquid spraying material.

BATES—WEST PARIS

Charles Cash, who has been sick since early winter and who was taken worse a week or two ago, and went to the Marine Hospital in Portland, died there Sunday and was brought here Monday to the home of his sister, Mrs. Freeman Whitman. Mr. Cash was about 29 years old, the son of Martha Bryant and the late Anson Cash. He leaves one child, Carl Cash, six years of age, a mother, who lives in Massachusetts, three sisters, Mrs. Kate Whitman, Mrs. Field and Mrs. Minnie Robbins and one brother, Fred Cash, also a half sister, Mrs. Farrington and a half brother, John Findley of Canton. He went across and served in the World War. A military service was held at the hospital and his casket draped with a flag before his remains were sent home. He had been employed on the G. T. R. R. section for several years and was taken sick with a severe cold at Bert Lang's where he boarded, was removed to his cousin's, Mrs. Freeland Herrick's, where he had pneumonia which terminated in tuberculosis. Funeral services were held here Wednesday at 2.30 p. m. at the M. E. chapel, Rev. E. H. Stover officiating. The community and relatives gave beautiful flowers.

There will be two extra meetings, making three in all, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings at the M. E. chapel and Thursday evening the Lord's supper will be observed, coming at an opportune time to commemorate the anniversary of that institution, this being Passion Week.

Mrs. Annie Willis attended F. L. Wyman's funeral at Mechanic Falls, Friday.

Freeman L. Wyman, who died at his late home at Mechanic Falls, Tuesday, March 27, seems more like one who belonged here because of his sojourn in this near vicinity for so much more of his long, successful, helpful life than was spent at his late home, that it is very fitting to include this memorial item about him in this paper from here. Mr. Wyman was the son of Seward and Mary Luce Wyman and was born in Lincoln, Nov. 1, 1840. He was well educated in the old schools of his time and was a successful school teacher for several years. Oct. 8, 1865, he married Mary Augusta Perkins, daughter of Daniel Perkins of Woodstock, and settled on the farm on Curtis Hill in South Woodstock, which he cleared, cultivated and improved for nearly sixty years and had an apple orchard and berry fields that won wide renown and was known as Pleasant Valley Fruit Farm. Oct. 7, 1915, they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. Two children were born to them, Cora D., wife of W. H. Lurvey, died of tuberculosis in 1911 and Perley M. Wyman, who died in 1922. Ten years ago he married Mrs. Mary E. Stetson of West Paris, who survives him. In 1923 he sold his farm and moved to Mechanic Falls. Mr. Wyman enlisted in Co. F, Ninth Maine Regiment, and served to the close of the war. He was a member of the North Paris Baptist Church, taking his letter to the West Paris Baptist and again to Mechanic Falls. He and his wife were charter members of Franklin Grange, Bryant's Pond, and later when West Paris Grange was organized, they removed their membership here. He was a faithful and active worker, serving as Master at different times. He was a ready speaker and always helpful in the Lecturers' programs as well as well versed in the ritualistic work. He was a member of W. Paris lodge I. O. O. F., the A. M. Whitman Post, Bryant's Pond, an honorary member of Barrows Woman's Relief Corps of West Sumner, the Colfax Rebekah Lodge and honorary member of Dwinal Relief Corps, Mechanic Falls. The funeral was held at Mechanic Falls, Friday, and the remains will be brought here for interment in the family lot as soon as the traveling is suitable.

Thelma Verge, who is attending a Normal School in Linden, Vt., spent her week's vacation here with her sister, Rowena, at the Randall Herrick home.

The Junior class sale and drama is next Saturday, April 7. "My Wild Irish Rose," a three act drama, at the Grange Hall.

The Cummings children and Hollis children are having the mumps.

Margaret Tuell visited her great aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Tuell, last Friday. She has gone to Portland to enter St. Barnabas Hospital to train for a nurse. She is a graduate of Portland High School.

The annual meeting of the Universalist Parish held last week, Tuesday, was a noteworthy event. Fine reports were given of the various church activities and financial standing. Rev. Eleanor B. Forbes has closed another successful year making six years here. A unanimous request was given her to remain the coming year.

Mrs. Anna W. White, Mrs. Martha Kendall and R. L. Cummings attended Oxford Pomona, Tuesday. Several other West Paris Grange members also attended.

Eben Pike lost a horse last Saturday. It broke its ankle and had to be killed.

High Street

Mrs. Chandler Runnels of Gardiner is stopping at Elmer Ingalls' for a while.

High Street is reverting back to Pioneer days, we think, when we see a string of six pairs of steers hauling logs to the mill.

Robins and bluebirds have come. Cheer up. Traveling is bad everywhere.

Everyone in and around West Paris will greatly miss Freeman Wyman, a well known and much respected citizen, a man that made the world much better by having lived in it.

Elmer Ingalls has a nice flock of sheep and some fine lambs.

Erlon Whitman is helping Herman McKeen saw wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hill called at Mr. Sanford Coffin's Sunday, for a while.

Philip Prince opened a cobbler shop this week in the building adjoining Witherell Park and has the machinery in place. A shoe shine chair will be added later. Mr. Prince learned his trade of his father, M C. B. Prince of Mechanic Falls but for the last ten years has been employed in the shoe shops here.

Donald B. Partridge has moved his law office and town clerk's headquarters into rooms over Stone's drug store, formerly occupied by Drs. Drake and Easton. The rooms have been painted and papered with the removal of a partition that gives Mr. Partridge two large offices, one for general business and one other for consultation. The equipment is complete and arranged for convenience. Howard H. Potter, civil engineer, has a large office adjoining the rooms and is well settled for his work. In opening a law office Mr. Partridge revives the legal profession in this part of the building, occupied for many years by the late Charles E. Holt, lawyer. Justice Chas. P. Barnes of Houlton read law in these rooms for several years and practiced there in the law firm of Holt & Barnes for a time.

Only a small quantity of maple syrup has come into the village. It sold for $2.75 and $3.00 per gallon. The making of maple honey is too hard work for the average farmer of these days.

Douglas Cushing of West Bethel was in town Saturday on business.

Charlie Herrick has gone to work for Turner Center Creamery Co. in Auburn and Virgil Herrick will go to New Hampshire next week where he hopes to find employment for the summer.

The warm rain on Saturday might seems to have improved the mud situation in the country roads quite a lot. They were almost impassable in some places. The Jackson meadow bridge was overflowed with water during the two hottest days caused by snow melting so fast in the woods and filling the brooks to high capacity. Much damage is done to the roads in some places by the large amount of water flowing across them and making deep holes and ruts. Snow melted so fast the ditches and culverts could not take care of all the water.

Virgil Herrick who has been cutting old growth rock maple trees for cordwood on the farm known as the Trowbridge Crooker farm for Geo. Westleigh sawed thru old fashioned cedar sap spiles that were imbedded in the large old trees several inches deep as the trees grew from year to year covering the spiles deeper and deeper. The large old growth trees are getting scarce through the woods and it will take a great many generations to grow more like them. Several of the trees on the Crooker farm measured over two feet on the stump and it takes lots of hard work to make them into fire wood, but what a cosy warm fire is the result when a man has chopped down and sawed and fitted up one of these giant trees ready for the stove. He certainly has accomplished something worth while doing.

The storage tanks for gasoline on Beal Street operated by the Norway Auto Co. have been protected with a sheet iron enclosure around the base and chemical fire extinguishers. This provides a fire proof room under the tanks for storage of furnace oil, etc. which they are to handle.

The warm wave of last week carried off the last of the snow and ice but upset the roads. Highways were bad before the premature summer conditions, but not in years has travelling suffered as during the past ten days. On Friday thermometers registered high as 80 but dropped below the freeing point Monday.

Dale Allen, who is having a try-out with the Providence Club in the Eastern League, appeared as short stop in the first game, Saturday, and made a splendid showing. His hit in the third inning started a rally that netted two runs, one of which he scored. Three assists in his position included the only double play for the game. In a letter to his parents this week, he said a transfer to Lynn, Mass., or Portland, might be expected soon.
